

CLINTON COUNTY SCHOOLS - EMPLOYEE

RESPONSIBLE USE POLICY (RUP)

The Clinton County School District is pleased to provide access to the District's computer network and the Kentucky Educational Network. This access includes Internet, email, the district's internal network, servers, switches, wireless access points, and all other technology resources provided by computing devices and accessed via that internal network (from this point forward, all of these resources and access will be referred to simply as "The Network"). To gain access to the network, employees must agree to, sign, and return the attached employee Access Release and Authorization Form to the appropriate district or school administrator. The network is made available to access the Internet, email, and other resources to further educational goals and objectives

It is important that employees read, understand, and follow the terms of the Clinton County Schools Employee Responsible Use Policy (RUP). Violations of these terms may result in temporary or permanent loss of access to the network and/or disciplinary action, up to and including, termination of employment. When applicable, law enforcement agencies may be involved.

EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES

The use of the network is a privilege, not a right. Employees who are granted access must remember that they represent Clinton County School Districts and as such, must conduct themselves in a professional manner, respect the rights of others, protect the integrity of the information and observe all relevant laws, regulations, and contracts including software licensing agreements and copyright laws.

The Clinton County School Districts reserves the right to review, monitor, and restrict information stored on or transmitted via Clinton County Schools owned or leased equipment and to investigate suspected inappropriate use of resources.
