

Clinton County School District

FULL-TIME VIRTUAL LEARNING PROGRAM APPLICATION

Enrollment in the Virtual Learning (VL) program can occur only during a two-week window for the fall and spring semester. The enrollment window for the fall semester will be September 6-17, 2021. Enrollment for the spring semester shall be December 6-17, 2021. No enrollments will be accepted outside the two-week windows in September and December. Students may decide to terminate their VL experience at any time to return to in-person instruction. However, once a student has left VL (either through his/her own preference or through program dismissal), he/she will not be allowed to return to Virtual Learning again during the 2021-2022 school year. To be accepted into the VL program, students must have received no failing grades for any course during the 2020-2021 school year. Students who are on the district's truancy list for unexcused absences are also not eligible for the VL program.
